'No Evidence' Khrushchev Faces Stroke

TORONTO (UPI) — Toronto doctors yesterday scoffed at New York reports that photographs of Russian Premier Khrushchev indicate he may be suffering from hardening of the brain arteries.

Dr. John B. Armstrong, director of Canada's National Heart Foundation, said he could see no evidence of a forthcoming stroke in the Russian leader's face.

Don't Isolate Eskimos, Writer Pleads

WINNIPEG (CP)—Canadian writer Farley Mowat Tuesday disagreed with a statement by RCMP Commissioner L. H. Nicholson that Eskimos should be kept "from clustering about white centres of population unless and until they have both employment and housing."

In a telephone interview with the Tribune from his home at Palgrave, Ont., Mr. Mowat said:

"I would completely and absolutely disagree with any effort to segregate the Eskimo —and that's what the commissioner appears to be advocating."

The commissioner told the Northwest Territories council at Ottawa Monday that indications of a "growth" of objectionable habits among Canada's Eskimos, including petty thievery and prostitution, dictate that action should be taken to bar them from defence centres, mining communities and similar settlements.

Mr. Mowat said the commission's statements "seem to reflect a completely reactionary point of view, one that holds that the Eskimo is a primitive, and not quite human being.

"The sooner the RCMP look to their own business—law enforcement—the better. I have great respect for the police as policemen but they are not equipped by training or temperatment to deal with the Eskimo problem, which is sociological."

Yugoslav Counters Moscow Blast

Kremlin Reviving 'Stalinist Tactics'

BELGRADE (Reuters) — A high Yugoslav Communist official Thursday accused Soviet Premier Khrushchev of "renewing Stalinist tactics" in his attacks against Yugoslavia.

Djuro Pucar, Communist party evecutive committee member, made the first official reply to Khrushchev's bitter attack on Yugoslavia at the Communist party congress in Moscow Tuesday.

Pucar's speech, coupled with Thursday's announcement that Russia will lop 12 per cent off 1959 trade with Yugoslavia, indicated a new low point in relations between the two countries following Moscow's 10-month campaign against Yugoslav "revisionism" — refusal to adhere to the Moscow line.

Russia's leaders were trying to separate Yugoslav leadership from the people, "the same as Stalin did in 1948," Pucar said. But the attempts at political and economic isolation of Yugoslavia were bound to suffer the "same total failure" as the earlier Stalinist campaign.

Douglas Drafts Rights

REGINA (CP) — Premier T. C. Douglas has proposed an amendment to the British North American Act to protect human rights.

Mr. Douglas said yesterday he has written Prime Minister Diefenbaker asking that a federal-provincial conference be held to consider such a change in the act.

Mr. Douglas' draft proposal would prevent Parliament or any provincial legislature from making laws "abridging freedom of speech and expression or of the press or other means of communication, or freedom of religion, or the right of lawful assembly, association or organization."

Asian River Discussion Topic

Gerald S. Andrews, B.C. surveyor-general, will discuss the Mekong River of Southeast Asia at a meeting of the Canadian Club in the Empress Hotel at noon Wednesday.

He made a survey of the area for the United Nations last summer.

Gift of Deeds to Peasants

Castro to Hand Out Land

HAVANA (UPI) — Fidel Castro will launch the government's agrarian reform program Monday by personally delivering deeds to the first parcels of land to peasants in Oriente province, cradle of the Cuban revolution, it was announced yesterday.

The announcement was made by Carlos Franqui, editor of Revolucion, official organ of Castro's July 26 revolutionary movement.

Franqui said Castro will appear Monday at Guayabal de Nagua, near the town of Estrada Palma in Oriente, to address a mass meeting of farm workers and make personal delivery of the first land grants.

The scene will be near Castro's former headquarters in the Sierra Maestra Mountains, from which he directed the two-year triumphant revolution against former dictator Fulgencio Batista.

Franqui said Castro had invited hundreds of doctors, teachers, engineers and technicians to go with him into the mountains in connection with the government's program for the building of hospitals, schools, highways and other public works to develop the area.

According to Franqui, Castro also is planning the establishment of chain stores to enable field workers in the mountainous regions to supply their needs without being exploited.

Qualified military sources meanwhile confirmed that revolutionary trials of former Batista officials will be resumed at 8 a.m. tomorrow, when Lt.-Col. Ricardo Luis Grao will go on trial before a court martial at the Hall of Justice in the Superior War Tribunal Building.
